1. Study the given information carefully:

In the given questions, four words of the sentence are given in italics and labelled as A, B, C and D. Of these, the positions of two or more words may be incorrect and need to be rearranged to make the sentence correct. Find the correct sequence of the word in italics. In case the given arrangement is correct, your answer should be 'No improvement'.

- A. To maintain safety and quality, however, Nasa's engineering include (A) will be made available to work alongside the companies, yet each proposal (B) must workforce (C) a plan about how that collaboration (D) will take place.

A BACD

B CBAD

C DBCA

D ADCB

E No improvement

Solution

- The correct answer is Option B 'CBAD'.

- In Part A, the word 'workforce' will fit correctly as it means 'All the workers employed by a specific organization or state'. Here the organization given is Nasa.
- In Part C, the word 'include' fits correctly because as the sentence is talking about a proposal. So the plan of collaboration must have included in the proposal.
- Therefore, the correct sentence is 'To maintain safety and quality, however, Nasa's engineering workforce will be made available to work alongside the companies, yet each proposal must include a plan about how that collaboration will take place'.

B. Some psychologists pronounced (A) that stress is more speculate (B) for girls than for boys in adolescence (C) due to the conflicting (D) demands of traditional female gender roles.

A BACD

B ACBD

C DCBA

D ADBC

E No improvement

Solution

- The correct answer is Option A 'BACD'.
- In Part A, sentence is talking about the opinion of the psychologists so the word 'Specule' fits correctly in Part A which means 'to make an inference based on inconclusive evidence'.
- In part B, sentence is saying that stress is more visible in girls so the word pronounced makes more sense as it means 'very noticeable or marked; conspicuous'.
- Therefore, the correct sentence is 'Some psychologists speculate that stress is more pronounced for girls than for boys in adolescence due to the conflicting demands of traditional female gender roles.'

C. The climate crisis (A) is of our own creation, particularly that of the richest countries whose exploiting (B) has been based on development (C) natural resources (D) without end

A ABDC

B ADCB

C ADBC

D ACBD

E

No improvement

Solution

- The correct answer is Option D i.e.
- 'ACBD'. In the given sentence interchange of the word 'development' and 'exploiting' makes the sentence meaningful because we exploit natural resources for the development of the country.
- Therefore, the correct sentence is 'The climate crisis is of our own creation, particularly that of richest countries whose development has been based on exploiting natural resources without end.'

D. Once the brainstorming (A) was filled with water from the river, a reservoir (B) session took place where everyone pondered (C) over what to do with the superfluity (D) of the water.

A

CADB

B

BACD

C

DACB

D

ABDC

E

No improvement

Solution

- The correct answer is Option B 'BACD'.
- The word 'brainstorming' means 'a method of problem-solving in which members of a group contribute ideas spontaneously' which doesn't give any meaning in Part A. The word 'reservoir' which means 'a place where anything is kept in store' gives the correct meaning as it was filled with water.
- In Part B, as the water was filled people gathered to discuss the methods of problem-solving so the word 'brainstorming' fits here.
- Therefore the correct sentence is 'Once the reservoir was filled with water from the river, a brainstorming session took place where everyone pondered over what to do with the superfluity of the water.'

2. Read the passage carefully and select the correct answer for the given blank out of the given alternatives

Political parties have become necessary adjuncts of government in modern times. They are the instruments whereby -----(1)----- are nominated and elected. Though they are not official organisations created by the state, they are nevertheless, quasi-official in the sense that -----(2)-----, regulate and permit them to offer candidates for public office. The ultimate aim of a political party is to capture political power and keep -----(3)----- of the government.

The numbers of -----(4)----- parties in a state vary from one to many. England and the United States have a two-party system. The advantage of this system is its capacity to present clearer cut issues and fewer candidates instead of a multiplicity of positions on issues and a wide number of candidates. The -----(5)----- party in this system serves as an effective opposition. France is the instance of a state with multiple party systems. Under a multiple party system government change rapidly. The -----(6)----- are bewildered by several viewpoints presented and the multiplicity of candidates they must assess.
