Read the sentence to find out whether there is any error in it. The error, if any, will be in one part of the sentence. The number corresponding to that part will be your answer. If the given sentence is correct as it is, mark the answer as "No error". Ignore the errors of punctuation if any.

2. Apotheosis can mean nothing to them who hold (1)/ that a man may be reborn as a god, but (2)/ still needs redemption, and that men on earth may (3)/ win redemption, if they are brave enough. (4)/ No error (5)

B 2

C 3

D 4

E No Error

Solution

The correct answer is option A i.e. 1

Here the subject of the sentence is 'Apotheosis' for 1st part and 'them' is the object of the subject/clause i.e. due to the presence of the relative pronoun 'who'.

Therefore, them is incorrect to use here, we should use 'Those' in place of 'them'.

'Those' is a pronoun for subjects.

Hence, the chosen option is correct.

Read the sentence to find out whether there is any error in it. The error, if any, will be in one part of the sentence. The number corresponding to that part will be your answer. If the given sentence is correct as it is, mark the answer as "No error". Ignore the errors of punctuation if any.

3. The January sun continued in its brilliance and (1)/ the rhythmic gliding across the crystal snow, though (2)/ not exhausting, warmed the couple to the point where even (3)/ their limited outer cover seemed extreme. (4)/ No error (5)

C 3

D 4

E No Error

Solution

The correct answer is option D i.e. 4

Here the error lies in the 4th part of the sentence.

The noun that is being described here is 'their limited outer cover', which seems excessive due to the sun.

As adjectives, the difference between excessive and extreme is that excessive is exceeding the usual bounds of something; extravagant; immoderate while extreme is of a place, the most remote, farthest or outermost.

Since, 'their limited outer cover' is not a place.

Therefore, 'excessive' is the correct word to be used in this case.

Hence, the chosen option is correct.

Read the sentence to find out whether there is any error in it. The error, if any, will be in one part of the sentence. The number corresponding to that part will be your answer. If the given sentence is correct as it is, mark the answer as "No error". Ignore the errors of punctuation if any.

4. As the bed went passed them, the (1)/ doctor clasped their hands, head bowed (2)/ down and were seen praying for (3)/ the baby in a touching, respectful way. (4)/ No error (5)

C 3

D 4

E No Error

Solution

The correct answer is option A i.e. 1

Here, change 'passed them' with 'passed by them'.

"Passed" is the past participle of the verb to pass, meaning to move on or ahead; proceed.

The sentence will become:

As the bed passed by them, the doctor clasped their hands, head bowed down and were seen praying for the baby in a touching, respectful way.

Hence, the chosen option is correct.

Read the sentence to find out whether there is any error in it. The error, if any, will be in one part of the sentence. The number corresponding to that part will be your answer. If the given sentence is correct as it is, mark the answer as "No error". Ignore the errors of punctuation if any.

5. With the current reading being one (1)/ taken from this morning, Delhi's air quality (2)/ makes the city one of the most (3)/ polluted in the world right now. (4)/ No error (5)

C 3

D 4

E No Error

Solution

The correct answer is option A i.e. 1

Here by reading the sentence, it can be deduced that it is talking about a particular reading by the sentence “one taken from this morning”

It seems to be that many readings are taken to study the pollution level of any city.

So, the article 'the' should be present before 'one'.

Hence, the chosen option is correct.

Read the sentence to find out whether there is any error in it. The error, if any, will be in one part of the sentence. The number corresponding to that part will be your answer. If the given sentence is correct as it is, mark the answer as "No error". Ignore the errors of punctuation if any.

- 6. The Maharani of Cooch Behar, Indira (1)/ Devi loved shoes so much then she ordered a (2)/ hundred pairs of shoes to be made for her by the famed (3)/ (and expensive) Italian shoemaker Salvatore Ferragamo. (4)/ No error (5)

C 3

D 4

E No Error

Solution

The correct answer is option B i.e. 2

So much is used before singular uncountable nouns. So many is used before plural nouns. I have never seen so much wealth in my life. She had so many problems that she didn't know what to do.

So, even though buying shoes was the next event in sequence, it should be 'that' instead of 'then'.

'So much' is used here to show an extreme love of shoes. Whenever, 'so much' is used to show such extent, it is followed by 'that'.

Structure of it is as follow:

'So much.....that'

Hence, the chosen option is correct
