

CURRENT AFFAIRS

26 MAY
2025

- ▶

Liberian ship capsizes near Kochi coast in May 2025

MSC ELSA 3

The cargo ship was on its way from Vizhinjam to Kochi when it capsized in the Arabian Sea, 38 nautical miles off the coast of Kochi.

Ships on rescue mission - INS Sujata, ICGS Arnvesh, ICGS Saksham
- ▶

Newly appointed South Asian representative to the 2025 UN Climate Change Conference (COP-30) to be held in Brazil

Arunabha Ghosh
- ▶

Kudumbashree State Arts Festival which aims to provide a platform for women to express their artistic talents

Arangu
- ▶

According to the latest data released by Global Forest Watch (GFW) in May 2025, primary forest that India lost in 2024

18,200 hectares

It was 17,700 hectares in 2023.
- ▶

According to a report published by Henley and Partners in May 2025, the richest city in India

Mumbai

According to the report, Mumbai is ranked 27th globally.

New York is the richest city globally.

The report was published by London-based Henley & Partners in association with New World Wealth, a financial data collection firm.
- A large container ship, MSC ELSA 3, is shown sailing on the sea. The ship is red and white, with 'MSC' visible on its side. It is carrying many colorful containers.
- A portrait of Arunabha Ghosh, a man with dark hair and a beard, wearing a light-colored shirt and a brown jacket. He is smiling.
- Arunabha Ghosh
- The logo for Kudumbashree 2025. It features a stylized sun or flower shape with three human figures inside, and the text 'കുടുംബശ്രീ 2025 കോട്ടയം' below it.
- A photograph of a dense forest landscape with tall trees and green foliage. The scene is misty or foggy.
- A photograph of a city skyline, likely Mumbai, showing many tall buildings and skyscrapers.